What Leaders, Clients & Peers Say

Shared with permission. Individual experiences vary.

"Quentin is a man of character, dedicated to his craft in coaching and getting results for people. His attitude is to always keep growing! I would definitely recommend working with him!"

Chris Widener
Author, The Coming American Revival · NYT & WSJ Bestselling Author · Motivational Speakers Hall of Fame

"Thanks for being a kickass speaker at our America's Future event last night! We hope to feature you again — I'm sure you have a LOT more you could say on the topic of mindset!"

Cassy K. Loseke
Board Member, Southwest Hub, America's Future
Event speaker

"If you're looking for something inspirational, you found that & more with Coach Q! We had him come speak to our teen group at a conference, where Q was able to catch their attention & bring them into the conversation. He inspired them to be the ultimate versions of themselves. Q became one of the group's favorite speakers. Would recommend Coach Q to both family & friends!"

Steven Fraden
Executive Director, Arizona Blood Alliance
Teen group conference speaker

"I have attended many leadership training seminars over my 42 year banking career and cannot think of one that has been as impactful in helping leaders understand their personality and the various personality groups that exist in an organization. … I am happy to recommend this training to any organization that wants to build a winning culture that will be the foundation for continuous success for the organization and its people."

Earl Beneby
Corporate Manager, Corporate and Commercial Business, Bank of The Bahamas
Path Elements Personality & ME TO WE Leadership

"…Quentin shared about life struggles, the power to overcome, and the ability to instill confidence and resilience in children we have the opportunity to work with. … Quentin McCain is a remarkable example of a strong leader who can bring heart, courage, and affect positive change."

Lori Leseur
Director, Client Care Services, Arizona Burn Foundation
Keynote, Camp Courage training (100+ counselors and staff)

"My team of senior leaders completed the Path Personality Training over the summer — it was a really great experience for my team! Gerry, Quentin, and their team had a wonderful, fun approach for us to learn not only about each other, but who we are and how we respond to our environment. I have seen great growth with our team as a result."

Natalie Grancharov
Department Manager, Intel Corporation
Path Personality Training

"Working with Coach Q and Gerry has been not only helpful with our company motivation, but helping us all speak a common language. We can now refer to important foundational principles in our day to day operations that allow us to move faster and be more productive quickly! Learning about Path Elements has helped myself and my team members grow their understanding of themselves, each other, and our clients that we work with daily! Great combination of uplifting motivation with practical tactics that we implement every week."

Blake Hawkins
Founder, Freedom Hawk Equity
Path Elements Personality Seminar

"The Path Elements training is effective, well thought out and accurate for my team and me. … The training is memorable & easy to digest as it makes sense and connects to things that you are familiar with. It then helps you fully understand what the elemental system is, how you fit into it, how others fit into it, your strengths & challenges, and how each element is necessary for successful operation of your business. Absolutely fantastic and enjoyable training."
